

Yuanta Securities delegation visits Anton Oilfield

Following a road-show campaign for the 2010 annual results announcement conducted in Hong Kong at the end of March, Anton Oilfield Services Group (“Anton Oilfield” or the “Group”) has continued its effort in investor relations by actively participating in investor meetings and telephone conferences organized by investment banks and brokerage houses to provide introduction of the Company and its business performance in order to enhance the capital market’s understanding of the Group.

On April 15, 2011, Yuanta Securities, one of the largest securities companies in Taiwan, paid a visit to Anton Oilfield’s headquarters in Beijing, bringing a group of 20 delegates and investors from Taiwan and Hong Kong. Hosted by Mr. Luo Lin and Mr. Ma Enhai, CEO and CFO of the Group respectively, the meeting promoted an enthusiastic exchange of opinions with regard to the business outlook of Anton Oilfield and the industry, as well as its strategic prospects. A dedicated banquet was also prepared afterwards to complete the impressive visit.
